Boy Scouts Start Heart Fund Drive

The annual drive to collect money for the Heart Fund gets underway in Canyon this week as local scouts put out canisters at drug stores, grocery stores, and other public businesses.

Money raised in the drive will go to the American Heart Association to be used to combat heart and circulatory diseases, Joe Gidden, chairman of the Canyon drive, said.

The drive will end February 23 with Heart Sunday, when scouts will make a house-to-house canvass of the city to raise funds.

Get Donation Envelope

On Heart Sunday, each contributor receives an envelope in which to enclose a contribution, seals it, and returns it to the volunteer.

When no one is home, the scout will leave an envelope for contributions to be returned by mail.

A movie for the youth of Canyon will precede Heart Sunday, Gidden said. Youngsters in Canyon's schools will receive a Heart Sunday envelope, and this envelope—sealed with or without money inside—will be the admission ticket to the movie.

Gidden said the movie will be shown Saturday, February 27, at the Olympic Theatre.

Business Drive Started

A drive to collect donations from the businesses in Canyon will be held by the Heart Board the week prior to Heart Sunday, the chairman stated.

Heading that drive for solicitations will be Mrs. T. G. Dewey, chairman of the Heart Board.

Assisting Mrs. Dewey will be Levi Cole, treasurer and Dr. J. Manly Bryan, Jerry LaGrone, Bob Brockman, Mona Hildreth, H. R. Fulton, Raymond Batenhorst, Louis Rahlf, and Carl Frische.

Causes Many Deaths

Gidden pointed out that diseases of the heart and circulation are responsible for more than 875,000 deaths each year—approximately 54 percent of all deaths in the United States.

He said support of the American Heart Association's annual drive has, through research, provided the knowledge needed to prevent rheumatic fever, control most cases of high blood pressure, repair damaged heart valves and to correct congenital defects through heart surgery, develop heart-lung machines, and perfect drugs which retard blood clotting and reduce recurrences of heart attack.

Annual Banquet Set Tomorrow For Sweethearts

The annual high school Sweetheart Banquet, sponsored by the Sunday School and the Training Union of the First Baptist Church, will be held at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow in Fellowship Hall of the church.

Featured speaker will be Dr. Joseph Findley, associate professor of education at West Texas State College. Entertainment will be given by "The Sons of the Flame," and other music will be by Mrs. Charles Brasher.

A gypsy theme will be carried out.

All high school young people of the church and their dates have been invited.

Heart Association Moves Office Here

The district office of the Panhandle Heart Association has been moved from Borger to the old telephone building here, 503 16th Street.

The office will serve the area north of Lubbock, and will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. Richard F. Dini will be the area consultant. He has not yet moved to Canyon.

Mrs. T. G. Dewey, president of the Randall County Heart Association, said the office would participate in research, education, and community service.

Accidents Follow Powerful Winds

Strong winds pushed through the Canyon area about noon yesterday, leaving two car wrecks and an overturned trailer home in their path.

The first wreck occurred about 1 p.m. three and seven-tenths miles south of Canyon, according to Highway Patrolman Gilbert Ray, who investigated the wreck.

Feliz Luis Arroyo, 38, Fort Carson, Colo., slowed down as he entered a pocket of dust blowing across Highway 87. The car behind him, driven by Mrs. Ann Armstrong Biles of Lubbock, did not slow down and rammed the rear of Arroyo's car.

A passenger in Mrs. Biles' car, Mrs. Billie Miller, suffered a broken leg, and Mrs. Biles received lacerations and facial injuries. Both were taken to Neblett Hospital.

In an identical accident two and one-half miles north of Happy about 1:30 p.m., a car driven by Harry F. Stamp, 53, Persia, Iowa, slowed down and was struck in the rear by a car driven by Walter Nelson, 38, of 4013 Ong, Amarillo. There were no injuries.

A trailer home belonging to Mrs. Betty Gail Knowles was overturned. No one was in the trailer, which was parked at the southwest corner of the Canyon Bowl.

Floor of Home Damaged by Fire

A fire of undetermined origin damaged the E. E. Plank home, five miles west of Canyon, last Thursday.

Fire Chief Bill Sternberg said the fire began in the floor joists of the house, and volunteer firemen from Canyon contained the fire there.

Mr. and Mrs. Plank were hospitalized after the fire, but neither were injured in the blaze. Both were suffering from flu.

Most of the damage to the home was restricted to the floor joists, Sternberg said.

Davis Leaving Canyon to Coach High School Sports at Lamesa

Taking One Assistant With Him

Bill Davis, head football coach at Canyon High School the past three years, has accepted the head coaching position at Lamesa High School. He landed the job Monday.

James Kauffman, one of his assistants here, will join him at Lamesa, probably this summer, the coach said.

Another assistant, Bill West, will not make the move. The job at Lamesa is a promotion for Davis because that school is classified AAA. Canyon is a AA school.

To Move Soon

Coach Davis said Wednesday that he hopes to move to Lamesa "as soon as possible," but that he would wait for the Canyon school to obtain another chemistry teacher. He teaches high school chemistry, in addition to his coaching duties.

Superintendent Joe A. Gibson said the school would wait until next Tuesday to act on Davis' resignation. Next meeting of the school board falls on that day.

The superintendent said he expected a flood of applications for the coach's job here, but his primary concern at present was finding another chemistry teacher.

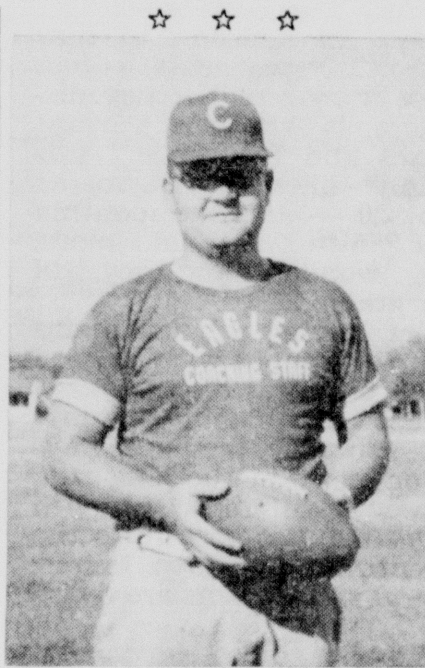

Began Career in '54

Davis began coaching in 1954 as an assistant at Sweetwater. In 1955 he moved to Panhandle as head coach there. His best team at Panhandle in 1956 lost to Stinnett in a district-title deciding tilt, and Stinnett went on to win the Class A state championship.

Since moving here in 1957, Davis-coached teams have been district co-champions twice—in 1958 and 1959. Last season the Eagles represented the district in the playoffs, but lost to Olton in the bi-district game.

"The credit for any amount of success I've had here should go to Mr. (J. E.) Miller and Mr. Gibson," the coach said. "They're the best two guys I've ever worked for."

Davis said he and his wife would probably go to Lamesa this weekend or next weekend to try to find a house so they can move as soon as another chemistry teacher is found. The Davises are the parents of three children — two girls and a boy.

Assembly To Mark Founding

Marking the 50th anniversary of the founding of West Texas State College, students and faculty will meet Wednesday in a special assembly program and tree-planting ceremony.

The program will begin at 11 a.m. in the Administration Building auditorium.

Speaker for the program will be J. Edd McLaughlin of Ralls, an early student at the college who is president-elect of Rotary International. McLaughlin attended the college during its infancy in 1910-11.

A number of the early-day students will be introduced during the program by Milton "Buff" Morris, executive secretary of the WT Ex-Students Association. Following the talk by McLaughlin, who is expected to relate the story of "early WT days," a tree-planting ceremony will be held in the quadrangle west of the Administration Building.

Led by Wayne Smith, Pampa senior who is president of the student body, four trees commemorating the college's 50th anniversary will be planted by the presidents of the four classes. They are Bob Robertson of Cactus, senior; Winfred Dates of Lefors, junior; Robert Spoonemore of Spearman, sophomore; and C. W. Wright of Plainview, freshman.

Concluding the ceremony, the A Cappella Choir, led by Dr. Houston Bright, will lead in singing the college alma mater.

McLaughlin, president of the Security State Bank and Trust Company in Ralls, was a charter member of the Rotary Club in Ralls in 1928. He has been a district governor and a director of Rotary International and has attended two dozen international conventions.

Active in the banking and insurance business, McLaughlin has been a civic leader in Ralls. He has served as president of the Chamber of Commerce and has headed such drives as the Community Chest, Red Cross, Cancer Society, and other organizations.

Shows, Buildings Topic of Coming Livestock Meeting

Future livestock shows and building plans are to be discussed by Randall County Junior Livestock Association members at their February 16 meeting at the Ag building at Canyon High School. Meeting time is 7:30 p.m.

Duane Howard, association president, issued a call to more than 200 members to attend. The association sponsors the Junior Livestock Show.

The show this year overflowed the facilities at the city barn. Association officials believe rule changes need to be made to reduce the number of some classes of livestock, or the show should seek larger facilities.

The association is in its 13th year of operation. Through these years the local show has grown to be the largest rural-urban project in Randall County.

Election Candidates Get Assessed 12%

Filing fees for candidates in the coming county elections were set at 12 percent of the first year's salary by the Randall County Democratic Executive Committee Monday night.

The committee, meeting in the commissioners' courtroom of the Randall County courthouse, also elected acting voting precinct chairmen, to serve until the May 7 election.

Also elected at the meeting was Luther Hagard, Jr., to serve as secretary for the group.

The filing fees assessed candidates are used to defray costs of the elections. In 1956, the last presidential election year, cost of the elections totaled nearly $4,000.

Five More Precincts

This year there are over 30 percent more voters and five more voting precincts than in 1956, David Matthis, chairman of the county committee said.

Under the 12 percent assessment, candidates for commissioner county must pay a $492 filing fee. There are six persons in the race for commissioner of precinct 1, while only the incumbent, Glenn Dowlen, filed for the commissioner's post in precinct 3.

It was indicated at the meeting, however, that at least one candidate—and possibly two—in the precinct 1 race would drop out.

Precinct 1 Candidates

Seeking the precinct 1 commissioner's office are incumbent B. E. "Baile" McCormick, J. E. McAvoy, Jr., B. W. "Jack" Flippin, Don L. McGregor, B. R. Jones, and Raymond Wineinger.

The salary for county commissioners were set recently by the commissioners at $4,100 annually.

The two candidates for county tax assessor-collector must pay a $750 filing fee to get their names on the May ballot. In that race for the tax office, which has an annual salary of $6,250, are incumbent Bill Money and Paul Funston.

Wilson, Johnston Unopposed

W. A. "Bill" Wilson, justice of the peace for precinct 1, must pay a $576 filing fee. He is unopposed in his bid for reelection to the $4,800 a year job.

L. S. "Slim" Johnston's filing fee, is $810. Johnston is seeking reelection as sheriff, and did not draw an opponent.

The three candidates for representatives of the 94th Floterial District—incumbent Ted Springer, Evetts Haley, Jr., and Gen. William L. Lee—must pay $10 filing fees, while incumbent Grady Hazlewood, seeking the office of state senator of the 31st District, also pays a $10 filing fee.

Assessed $50 Fees

Incumbent Walter Rogers and Arthur Glover, candidates to the U. S. Congress from the 18th Congressional District, were assessed $50 fees.

Herbert O. Willborn, seeking a place on the Texas State Board of Education from the 18th District, as well as the candidates for the county Democratic Executive Committee, were assessed $1 filing fees—for offices which have no salary.

Seven acting precinct chairmen were elected by the executive committee.

Approximately 11,069 poll taxes and exemptions were issued to Randall County voters, according to O. O. Henry, deputy tax assessor-collector.

An incomplete count Tuesday showed 9,874 poll taxes and 1,195 exemptions were issued by the tax assessor-collector's office. This is an increase of 32 percent over 1956, the previous high, and twice the number issued in 1958.

The vacancies occurred after the Randall County commissioners shuffled the voting precincts and because some of the chairmen had become ineligible because of change of residence, or other reasons.

Hagard, Burrus Appointed

Two of the present committee members who had to be appointed because of the change in precinct boundaries were Hagard, who was elected to the chairmanship of precinct 17, and H. W. Burrus, in precinct 16.

Other vacancies filled included E. W. Schaeffer in precinct 4, George Grogan in precinct 6, Mrs. Annie Mae Miller in precinct 10, A. L. Crossland in precinct 13, and Frank Begert in precinct 18. A vacancy in precinct 1 was not filled.

Other precinct chairmen are Edgar Robinson, precinct 2; R. B. Gist, Jr., precinct 3; J. I. Fletcher, precinct 5; T. C. Jones, precinct 7; W. P. Janssen, precinct 8; Mildred C. Miner, precinct 9; J. Robert Poole, precinct 11; William Q. Boyce, precinct 12; Charlie Wilson, precinct 14, and Lindy Ward, precinct 15.

Next meeting of the group was set for March 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the commissioners' courtroom.

Mrs. Cox Buried Here on Tuesday

Last rites were held Tuesday for Mrs. Pennie Ann Cox, 76, of 2201 Eighth Avenue at 2:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church here.

Mrs. Cox died Sunday at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo, where she had been hospitalized for two weeks with a broken hip.

Mrs. Cox moved to Canyon in 1927. She was a member of the Primitive Baptist Church of Amarillo, the Randall County Home Demonstration Council, and the Pioneer Club.

Conducting the services Tuesday were Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, and Elder George E. Griffin and Elder E. J. Norman, both of Amarillo.

Interment was in Dreamland Cemetery, with LaGrone Funeral Chapel in charge of arrangements.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Irene Duke of Amarillo; two brothers, George Cox of Amarillo and J. B. Cox of Colton, California; two grandchildren, Charles Ridings Floan of Weatherford and Mary Ann Sumner of Amarillo, and three great grandchildren.

Pall bearers were Bill Griffin, Porter Campbell, Melvin Ramsey, J. E. Miller, Clay Dawson, and Clarence Graham.

Outmoded Merchandise

From year to year, a new crop of youngsters develop from the state of adolescence to manhood and womanhood and, each year, several members of this group decide to buy a home. When this time arrives, the young couples are in for a rude awakening! They soon learn that buying a home is far different from buying an automobile.

Despite the fact that a two-bedroom home usually costs less than three times the price of the more popular automobile, you just don't walk into the show room, make your choice, sign a few papers and start living it up between payments. Those things you have been hearing about GI loans, FHA guarantees and three percent interest suddenly becomes remote; even the obstinate ones who wait the situations out find themselves cooling their heels for periods of three months to three years.

When, and if, the young couple does get down to the point of closing the deal—after figuring every penny for all it was worth—they rudely come face to face with a series of unforeseen charges: $10 for a transfer, $1.25 for federal stamps, $5 for a picture of the little mansion, another $5 for a credit report, $6 to $10 for filing fees, $35 or $40 for examining the title and, naturally, $75 or $80 for the loan application. Generally, before our couple actually moves into their new home, they are out $700 to $1,000 including a low down payment—and the furniture budget has taken a real beating.

By this time a lion's share of the prospective home buyers have been eliminated. Those who persisted are happy, perhaps, inviting in their friends as the first 30 days pass. Then comes another rude awakening. In addition to that $59 or $61 in monthly payments—just a little bit more than rent—they discover that there is another account known as "Taxes and Insurance," this item immediately hikes the payments another $15 to $20—and the monthly payment is now $75 to $80. What's more, the couple often wonders how they will ever make the grade.

In many cities, buying a house seems to be different. A couple with a good credit rating can purchase on a package plan: "$300 or $500 down" and you move into the house. Probably, the buyer pays just as much, or more, in the long run, but the approach is different. This, in all likelihood, contributes greatly to the present day centralized growth in our cities, while many small towns are dwindling away.

Out of the dilemma comes two conclusions: either our home developers need to improve their methods, or our automobile dealers are far, far ahead of their time when it comes to merchandising. To say the least, fewer future families will own homes and far more families will own automobiles—until some changes are made.

Speak Up Now

Do Americans want their country to be a welfare state?

Do they want constantly increasing federal budgets, taxes at present high levels, indefinitely or even increased, and a continued cheapening of the dollar?

That's what we're getting.

If Americans don't want that, they must speak up, quickly and decisively.

Everybody knows that the cost of federal government has gone up greatly during the present administration.

The myth persists that it is the cost of defense that is responsible.

It's true that defense is the biggest item in the budget. But—

Cost of defense is a constantly declining percentage of the budget.

It's the other costs of government that have increased.

The first budget presented to Congress by the present administration was the fiscal 1955 budget, submitted in January, 1954.

That fiscal 1955 budget called for an outgo of $65,570,000,000.

The fiscal 1961 budget, just submitted, calls for an outgo of $79,800,000,000, more than a $14,000,000,000 increase.

The increase is for domestic spending programs, not defense.

However, the magazine U. S. News & World Report comments in its current issue, "It's the cash figures (rather than the budget) that tells the real story of government and its importance. Those figures include the welfare state and highway spending." The article goes on:

"Just notice this in eight years of a 'conservative' administration:

"Welfare: At start, $6,900,000,000. At end, $20,300,000,000. Rise: $13,400,000,000.

"Farm aid: At start, $2,900,000,000. At end, $5,400,000,000. Rise: $2,500,000,000.

"Debt interest: Start, $4,700,000,000. End, $9,000,000,000. Rise: $3,300,000,000.

"Roads, housing, etc.: Start, $2,300,000,000. End, $5,500,000,000. Rise: $3,200,000,000.

"Veterans: Start, $4,900,000,000. End, $6,100,000,000. Rise: $1,200,000,000.

"Defense: Start, $50,500,000,000. End, $45,900,000,000. Decline, $4,600,000,000.

The first year in defense was adjustment from the Korean War.

"The important thing to notice is this: National security cost is down from 1953.

Welfare state cost, however, is shooting up. It will nearly triple in the eight years of the Eisenhower administration.

"This country fast is becoming a welfare state, holding back on defense while splurging on programs to make everybody feel secure and happy."

If Americans don't want a welfare state, in which government will spend more and more, tax more and more, make people more and more dependent upon the government, make business more and more dependent upon government, increase socialization, spur inflation and constant cheapening of the dollar, they must let their congressmen know how they feel. They must urge their senators and representatives to resist every bid to increase domestic expenditures, and to cut back on existing programs wherever possible.

What Our Neighbors Say . . .

Scissor Snippings

George Dolan in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram: There's just one minor difference between this season's two most popular sports, basketball games and banquets: Basketball is the one where they shoot the ball.

The other has some outstanding shooters, too, and one is Midwesterner Herb True, who performed recently at Wichita Falls.

He observed that we in the United States have the best politicians that money can buy, then explained: "An honest politician is the one you can buy off and he STAYS bought."

Among other True-isms: "Anybody who still smokes either doesn't want to live or just plain can't read."

Fewer women become neurotic, psychotic and alcoholic than men. The explanation is simple: The women drive us that way.

The newest tranquilizer is Dam-it!—you take it and don't care.

Ben Ezzell in the Canadian Record: A couple of weeks ago we wondered aloud . . . and in print . . . why Southwestern Bell Telephone Company operators couldn't give the correct time to local subscribers who called in to ask.

A couple of days ago, we found out . . . from Joe McDonald, the district manager and the guy we should have asked in the first place. There's a darned good reason why, and it isn't because the company objects to its operators giving you the time of day.

The reason is that every time you dial "Operator" to ask for information of any kind, it is, in effect, a long-distance call to Pampa . . . since that's where the Canadian operator is now stationed.

There are nine circuits between Canadian and Pampa . . . normally ample to take care of all inter-city traffic out of this exchange.

But nine people dialing "Operator" for information at any one time could completely cut off this exchange from outside calls, tying up all the long distance equipment. That's why Southwestern Bell doesn't provide "time service" for subscribers . . . here or anywhere else.

Local operators used to give subscribers the correct time, Joe explained, because they could do so without tying up any outside equipment. Oh well, the loss of that "personalized service" is just one of the penalties we have to pay for "Progress."

Bascom Nelson in The Castro County News: Like most everyone else in Dimmitt, we've been trying to learn to bowl. We gave up trying to shoot snooker and pool a good while ago and golf has always seemed impossible.

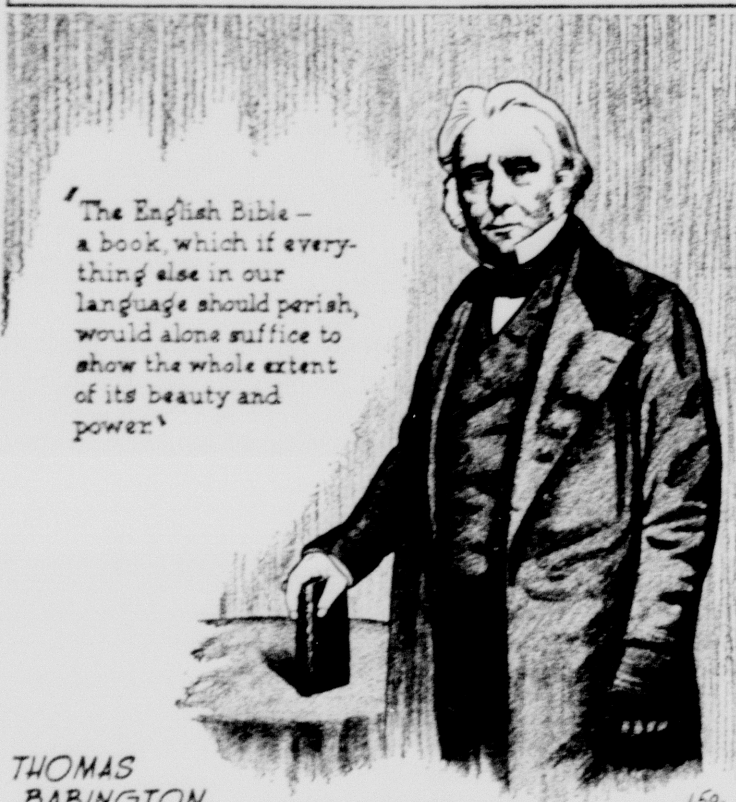

But bowling looks easy. Easier, even, than fishing or betting on the bangtails or rooster fights. Thinking this was a sport a person could easily muster we went into it with some gusto.

It really was easy. It was very little trouble to run up a score of 50 or so. But we began looking at other people's scoresheets. Some were over a hundred! Then the wife began to bowl more than that.

In the spirit of thousands of other intrepid bowlers that have gone before we buckled down, determined to: (1) Keep our ball in our own lane; (2) Open our eyes when we let go; and (3) Raise our score to at least a hundred by the end of the first year. We're still working on these goals.

It's a lot of fun if you don't weaken.

The Bible - Book of Beauty and Power

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

W. P. Webb is Learned Educator, But Also A 'Real' Human Being

By BOYCE HOUSE

Dr. Walter Prescott Webb has been described as having one of the four finest intellects in Texas. He is the immediate past president of the American Historical Association and he is the author of several scholarly books which have won wide respect. For many years he has been connected with the University of Texas where he holds the title of distinguished professor.

So much for the learned educator—and now a little about the man.

The first time we ever met was at an autographing in Dallas for his first book. As I shook hands with him, I said:

"Dr. Webb, something is going to have to be done. I am the author of a book which came out a short time ago and the title of your book is very similar to mine. People are going to get confused and buy your 'Texas Rangers' thinking that they are getting my 'Were You in Ranger'."

(Actually his volume was 400 pages and sold for $5; mine was less than 200 pages and was priced at $1.50.)

I continued:

"So I suggest that you change the name of your book."

His admirers gasped—but a slow smile lit up his face.

Soon afterward, out of the corner of his mouth, he murmured, "Let's slip out of here and get a cup of coffee—which we did and had an opportunity to get acquainted."

He read my book on the Ranger oil boom and wrote, generously, "I envy you the ability to get the interest of the reader with your first sentence."

Dr. Webb was especially interested in Ranger because he attended high school there and earned his way by janitorial work. Once when I introduced him as having graduated from Ranger High, he said, "Boyce, they didn't give diplomas then."

He placed me on the program of the Texas Historical Society to speak on the Spindletop oil boom, along with savants.

One time a friend of mine and I entered an Austin cafe and I caught sight of Senator Ralph Yarborough and Dr. Webb at the counter. I said to Yarborough, "Judge, I believe you would be interested in meeting the man who was 'the boy chief of police' in Ranger during the boom."

The learned historian drawled, "What makes you think I wouldn't like to meet him, too?"

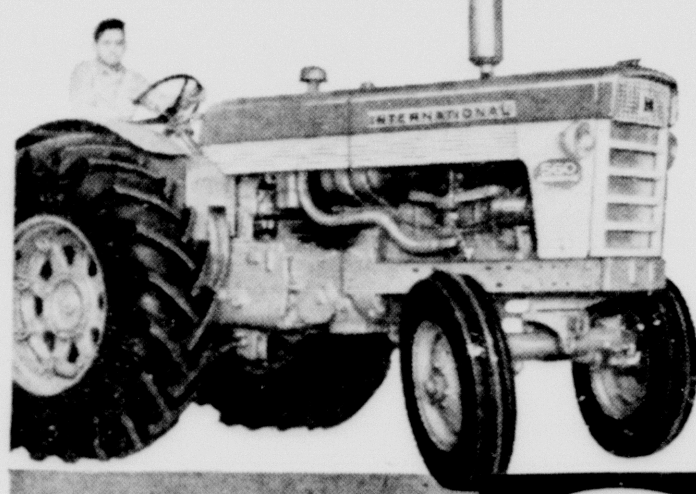

If, from all this, you conclude that—doctor of philosophy and all—Walter Prescott Webb is a real human being, with no snobbery or condescension in his make-up, you are exactly right.

Pvt. Tandy Named Top Rifle Marksman

A former resident of Canyon, Pvt. William A. Tandy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tandy of Limon, Colo., was recently named as one of the high scorers of his unit at the trainfire range at Fort Ord, Calif.

The trainfire range is a newly developed Rifle Marksmanship Training Course recently installed by the Army. Tandy, who scored 85 out of a possible 112 points with an M-1 rifle, was awarded a rifle marksmanship trophy and the Expert Rifleman's Badge for his achievement.

A member of Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 8th Battle Group, Third Brigade, Tandy is a 1959 graduate of Canyon High School. He attended West Texas State College briefly before entering the Army in October, 1959. He is in basic training at Fort Ord.

of grandparenthood; the pain and pleasure of grown-up sons. It was a day we won't soon forget.

We were to meet again the following day for a hurried lunch in a downtown hotel. But by morning, we wondered what it could add. More food, more recollections, some stories re-told. Would it enhance or dim the charm of that first meeting in 25 years? We decided it would be an anti-climax.

As it is we've tucked in our portfolio of memories a golden hour with old friends. As it might have been... who ever recaptured a dream?

We spent a golden hour last weekend — one of those unexpected pleasures that breaks on a humdrum day with the warmth of an autumn sunset: two very dear old friends came to town and called us up.

"Come down and have lunch with us," they said.

Nothing of the kind. They were to come lunch with us. And in the cozy atmosphere of our own hearth and home we talked and laughed for a fleeting two hours before they went back to their business of the trip.

The four of us had been in college together, more than several years ago. And as we recalled school doings and our own adolescent attitudes, our blended laughter defied the years between. Then came the round of stories about what happened to old Dan; Mary's daughter being queen of the tomato festival; Jill's rejected suitor who is now a millionaire; and all kind of harmless chit-chat.

By this time we were sufficiently mellow with good food and reminiscences to look at ourselves. Then the fun began all over again: Bob's paunch and white hair, Jim's balding head, Doris's worrying; Louise's plumpness; the joys and sorrows

LAUCK'S SPEECH DEFENDED AS ONLY ONE SIDE OF ISSUE

By OSCAR GRIFFIN

Chester H. Lauck was a big hit at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet a couple of weeks ago. His remarks concerning a couple of topics were enough to make some stop and think of this country's fate.

One such topic the executive assistant for Continental Oil Company touched on was the farm problem. His solution to the problem—and it surely is that—came close to being heresy in these parts because he expressed the opinion that the farmers could work out their own problems if left to their own invention.

Such an idea—much less the expression of it—draws the ire of such as Ralph Yarborough liberalists as is H. M. Baggarly of the Tulia Herald.

Mr. Baggarly was shocked that a group of Canyon merchants would sit and listen to a person expand on such an idea, much less applaud him when he had completed his speech.

Says the Tulia editor, "It would seem that Canyon and Amarillo... would be too near agriculture for Lauck to get by with such obvious big business propaganda and attempts to brain wash—but not so!... If such distorted propaganda and half truths are applauded in Canyon and Amarillo, almost in the heart of the farm belt of West Texas, what can we expect when they are dispensed in the large industrial areas of our country?"

Obviously the type speaker Mr. Baggarly would prefer—and will have—at Tulia's Chamber of Commerce banquet is the kind which tells those present what great people they are and what a fine thing they're doing for the county—with his leadership naturally—just so he can get their vote at the next election.

In an agricultural community, such a speaker will expound on the raw deal being given the farmer by industry and if the government would only adopt his program the life of a farmer would be a bed of roses.

In an industrial community, such a speaker rakes the farmer over the coals, pointing out that some $11 billion worth of grain is now going to waste (as Lauck did here).

For my part Mr. Baggarly can have all of those speakers he can get—and more power to him.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce, by any stretch of the imagination, couldn't have thought they were getting a friend of the farmer in an executive of an oil company as its speaker—even if they thought his talk would be political.

However, Mr. Baggarly spoiled his dissertation of the evils of listening to such a "hypocritical conservative" with this statement: "How can smalltown businessmen in an agricultural community swallow the propaganda of a major oil company hook, line and sinker, without even informing themselves of the other side of the issue?"

Perhaps Mr. Baggarly would like to think that there is only one side to the farm question.

Fellow down the street says the only place a fellow can strike now and not draw the ire of his boss is while bowling for the office team.

Ed Boydston Wins Tech Grid Letter

Eddie Boydston, former Canyon High School football star, earned a freshman letter for football at Texas Tech College in Lubbock, it was announced this week by Red Raider coach Tom Hamm.

Boydston was an outstanding lineman for the Eagles, and was named to the AA all-state team by the Fort Worth Star-Telegram in 1958.

In addition he was voted the outstanding lineman in District 2-AA by coaches in the district.

He played tackle and halfback on offense and left linebacker on defense for the Eagles during the 1958 season.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 19% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 335 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Sil's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. You'll see the difference.

Agriculture Teaches Leadership

Vocational Agriculture and Future Farmers of America, under the direction of Mr. Ed Dwyer, place emphasis upon training for leadership, preparation for a full useful life and a thorough knowledge of the many things a farmer must know. This year there are 67 boys enrolled in this department.

The primary aim of the Vocational program as well as the FFA is to prepare the student for a vocation of agricultural work. This does not necessarily mean farm placement of the youth. Approximately one-third of the people in this country are deriving their work directly or indirectly from agriculture and agricultural products and services.

Other than the primary aim there are many other aims equally important but not quite so easily understood. One of these is "to help the student to help himself." This is the reason for the extensive leadership program on the farm placement program and guidance program. The student may never do any work in agriculture but will find that this training will help him in any vocation that he decides to follow.

Four-Year Course

The Vocational Agriculture program consists of four years and allows the student to earn a total of five units of high school credit. The first or freshman year of Vocational Agriculture is basic in nature.

On the freshman outline of the course are found such basic things as history of the organization, the national constitution and by-laws, state and local organization of the FFA, leadership training, parliamentary procedure, chapter conducting, breeds of all types of livestock, selecting and judging all types of livestock, poultry, and many others. Most of the information is basic and gives the student a general knowledge of agriculture. In V. A. I there is also a unit on farm mechanics or farm shop.

V. A. II goes deeper into the subjects found in V. A. I plus an extensive unit on diseases of livestock and another unit on feeding livestock and poultry. The other training is continued.

Specialization Introduced

V. A. III is a more specialized course. Most of the boys that remain in Vocational Agriculture in the third year have decided to make some phase of agriculture their life work. In the junior year all students begin to specialize and to take courses toward their intended vocations. Some of the major courses in V. A. III are genetics, farmstead planning, home planning and decoration, pedigrees, animal and plant breeding, farm shop, which includes rafting cutting, gasoline engines, water systems, electric and oxy-acetylene welding, and making individual projects.

V. A. IV is a more problem course. The boys bring up the problems, and then through class work and general discussion a possible solution is reached. Approximately one-half of the senior vocational agriculture course is spent in shop, maintenance and repair techniques.

Take Field Trips

Some of the class activities are a field trip to the Amarillo Fat Stock Show, field trips to various farms during the year, team trips, and other trips that pertain to agricultural work.

Canyon High School was granted chapter 499 on October 17, 1936, by the Texas Association of the Future Farmers of America. The chapter has been in continuous operation for the 24 years since.

The Future Farmers of America is an organization made up of the boys who are or have been enrolled in Vocational Agriculture. The FFA is not a part of the Vocational Agriculture program, but the two work closely together. The FFA is a means of putting the things learned in Vocational Agriculture into action. Some examples of this would be livestock judging, crop judging, leadership work, degrees, etc.

Current FFA Officers

The FFA officers are Billy Martin, president; Joe Triplett, vice-president; Douglas Bond, secretary; Walton Bagley, treasurer; Harley Wesley, reporter; Jim Davis, sentinel; Wilma Burkett, sweetheart; Mr. Ed Dwyer, advisor.

There are many honors that may be won in the FFA. Some of these are officers in the local, state, area or national organizations; positions on grass, poultry, livestock, dairy cattle, dairy products, wool, meat, cotton classing or land judging; positions on chapter conducting, farm skill, radio or quiz teams; the Greenhand, Chapter Farmer, Lone Star Farmer and American Farmer degrees; public speaking awards, talent awards, and many other types of honors.

FFA activities other than those listed for V. A. are such things as the monthly meetings at which all chapter business is transacted by the boys in accordance with the accepted rules of parliamentary procedure. Such meetings have a planned agenda, with a planned program and refreshments. During the three summer months the meetings are generally of a recreational nature, such as a watermelon feed, a swimming party, or other similar things.

Plan Summer Trip

Another FFA activity is the summer trip. The boys last year went to Possum Kingdom Lake and spent five days there. There were 27 boys in the group. They were accompanied by T. T. Triplett, Kelly McGehee, Ebb Perkins, and Ed Dwyer. The boys fished, swam, water-skied, pitched washers, ran foot races and did almost everything they could think of. The boys are planning another trip this year after school is out. The expenses for this trip are met by the boys.

The boys who apply for and receive the Lone Star Farmer Degree which is the highest FFA honor on the state level, attend the state FFA convention. The convention was held last year in Austin. Dale Henry received his Lone Star Farmer Degree, and Joyce Ricketts, chapter sweetheart, represented Area I in the runoff for state sweetheart.

The chapter tries to participate in anything that will be for the improvement or benefit of the students enrolled in Vocational Agriculture.

It's better to give than to receive — because it's deductible.

The man who loses himself in thought is soon discovered.

Ladies Present CCTA Program

Mrs. Eunice Haggard and Mrs. Marian Forbau presented the program for the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association in the high school cafeteria February 2.

Mrs. Haggard discussed the book "Sensible Kate" by Doris Gates, presenting it as a type enjoyed by elementary school students. Such books discuss problems of young people in story form.

Preceding the book review, Mrs. Marian Forbau sang three songs dedicated to the Canyon teachers. They were "Getting to Know You," "I Could Have Danced All Night," and "On the Street Where You Live." She was accompanied by Mrs. Gyneyl Wheeler.

During the business session, conducted by Miss Mae Simmons, president, reports from the committee chairmen on welfare, public relations and legislation were given and requests for contributions were referred to the proper committees. Study of the club constitution for the purpose of revision was deferred because of lack of time.

Hosts and hostesses were Mrs. Guylene Stover, Mrs. Betty Knighton, Miss Claudia Neelley, Mr. Sidney Burgess, Mr. Edward Dwyer, Mrs. Bonnie Hinger, Mrs. Martha Goodman, Mrs. Lucille Davis, Mrs. Alma Perkins, and Mr. Oscar Hinger.

Aptitude Tests Prove Average

Mr. J. E. Miller met with juniors and seniors Friday morning to discuss their scores on the Preliminary Scholarship Aptitude Tests taken earlier this year.

Leaflets containing scores and explanation for the tests were given to each individual. There were two scores, verbal and mathematical. The verbal score represents one's ability to read with understanding, and the mathematical represents one's reasoning ability, not one's actual knowledge of mathematics.

A specially prepared chart was used to tell each individual's score. Ten percent of the juniors all over the nation ranked 40-40, and 13 percent of the seniors. The average score for Canyon High School on verbal was 45-46 and for mathematical 40.

Forty students took the test for the purpose of finding out their college potentials. In Texas, 9,872 juniors and 8,872 seniors have taken the test.

Combined Bands To Give Concert

February 16, combined bands of high school and junior high will present a concert in the high school gymnasium for the public.

The high school band will play "March Lorraine," "Dawn Yanket," "Sequoia," "Ode," "Carmelita," "Moonrise," and "March of Herald." The band from the seventh and eighth grades will play "On the Street," "Goliath Meets Mr. Bones," and "Little Irish Suite." The numbers "Aurora Lee," "Swing Song," and "Cadet Series" will be played by the sixth grade band members.

Highlight of the concert will be the crowning of the band queen and king, chosen by vote of the band members.

Mr. Gene Murray, assistant director, will conduct one number. Mr. Herman Demus, director, will conduct the remaining numbers.

New Zealander Gives CHS Students Outline of School in His Country

The New Zealand exchange student from Tulia High School, John Henderson, gave CHS students a general outline of the American Field Service, New Zealand, and its school system yesterday at assembly.

He says he finds life is generally more informal here and the people are extremely friendly. One reason for his coming to America was that he was too young to go to college in 1958; therefore, he applied for a scholarship, asking particularly to come to America.

In school, the system of six weeks' tests is new to him, but he thinks that it is a way to keep you working steadily during the school year.

His ambition and future vocation is to become a farmer just as his father is a farmer. John says he was reared on a farm and, along with his parents, he has a sister, 21, who is trained as a dentist for children. John plans to attend an agricultural college for three years when he returns home.

John believes that New Zealanders tend to concentrate on family unity more than Americans. Teen-agers rarely own cars and the habit of just driving up and down the street is not done at all. He says this is largely due to the high price of cars and gas, and the fact that teen-agers actually participate in sports more than they do in America.

John has spoken to Tulia High

JOHN HENDERSON

School students once, showing slides, and to the Tulia Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. He states that he has approximately 10 more speeches to give in the next two months.

He is sponsored by the American Field Service with headquarters in New York, and lives with the W. K. Hulsey family in Tulia.

Dunedin, New Zealand, is John's hometown. It is located in the southern part of that country and has a population of 100,000.

Semester Honor Rolls Represent One-Third of Students; 29 'A's'

The CHS "A" and "B" honor rolls for the first semester of this year have been released from the principal's office. The total of 110 students on both honor rolls represents 33 percent of the average daily attendance.

Eighty-one students are on the "B" roll. There are 17 seniors, 19 juniors, 25 sophomores, and 20 freshmen.

The "A" roll consists of students whose grades were not lower than "A minus." Students whose grades were not lower than "B minus" are on the "B" roll. Although a student may have some "A's," he could not be on the "A" roll because of some "B" grade.

Mrs. Dick Louder, representative of the club, said that the winners will be announced at the February 11 meeting of the club. Winning themes will be read by authors at a meeting of the club.

New Students Enroll

Several new students have entered CHS for the second semester. Two of these are from Amarillo, one from Hereford, one from Grand Island, Neb., and one from La Verne, Minn.

Six students of CHS have withdrawn. These are Billy Parker, freshman; Frankie O'Donald, sophomore; Larry Pryor, sophomore; Andy Smith, sophomore; Robert Poulin, junior; Don Brewer, freshman; and Billie Jo Hutton, senior. Andy, Robert, and Don have gone to Amarillo to finish their studies. Billie Jo married.

Jerry Lynn's sister enrolled with Jerry but had to withdraw because her grandmother was ill. She is attending school in Hereford at the time.

Welcome, new students, and happy CHS days!

Language Club Formed

The Foreign Language Club was organized Monday evening, February 1, in the Canyon High School library under the supervision of Mrs. A. K. Knott, sponsor.

Eugene Blasdel presided over the meeting until a president, Virginia Crouse, was elected. Jerry Blythe was elected vice-president; Pat Haley, secretary; and Bill Callarman, treasurer. Dues were set at 25 cents a semester.

Both the Spanish and French members expressed feelings of enthusiasm over the coming meetings of the club which are to be the third Thursday of every month.

Choir Receives New Robes

Choir members will soon be enjoying their new choir robes which arrived February 1.

The robes are shimmering purple with white stoles that also serve as closed collars, so that any type of street clothes may be worn under the robe.

Wearing their new robes to the Interscholastic League contest in March, the choir will choose songs from "Adoramus te Christe," "Ave Maria," "Awake, Nightingale," "Lament of the Enchantress," and "Christe Adoramus te."

Classes Elect Favorites

Class favorites were chosen at special meetings called last Thursday.

Wilma Burkett and Billy Triplett were elected favorites from the senior class, while the junior class chose Elizabeth Coke and Mike Moore.

The sophomore class favorites are Lee Ruth Wiggins and Ralph Cabe, and those for the freshmen are Gloria Buchanan and Robert Cooke.

Pat's Strong Odor Puzzled Band Patter

A new style of band jacket was chosen by the members of the Canyon High School Band last week. The new style will be used for three years before it is changed again. Senior band members were given a choice of a jacket or a blanket bearing a large "C" as gifts from the band. Mr. Gene Murray, assistant director, will receive a blanket, and Mr. Herman Demus, director, will receive a jacket.

Choir jackets were also ordered during this week. Because this is the first year that jackets have been given to choir members, our choir and its director, Mr. Murray, are quite anxious for them to arrive.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to those people selected to present the junior play, "The Little Dog Laughed." This comedy production will be under the direction of Mrs. Lee Foster.

A strong odor in the band hall puzzled the band members and Mr. Murray recently. The source of the unusual smell was a slowly burning cigar which was found on the floor. No one knows how or why it got there, but it added a moment of fun to the school day.

A recent trip to Shop proved to be an interesting tour for members of the Journalism Class. The group enjoyed looking through the Shop (woodworking) Department under the leadership of Mr. Sidney Burgess.

The Journalism Class also visited The Canyon News and had a pleasant and profitable trip.

The cast for the one-act contest play was chosen last Wednesday by a committee of Mrs. Foster, who will direct the play. Mrs. William Moore, and Miss Marti Henson. Those selected were Ted Abbott, Bill Cornette, Carole Jones, and Judy Wheeler. The second act of "The Glass Menagerie" by Tennessee Williams is the contest play.

A good name is rather earned than chosen.

Washington Report

Aminotriazole and Stilbestrol

By Representative Walter Rogers
18th Congressional District

These two words have been in the news in recent months almost as frequently as Castro and Khrushchev. Incidentally, they too strike a note of fear in the minds of many.

Aminotriazole is especially obnoxious to the National Cranberry Association. It is the name of the chemical which was used by cranberry growers for spraying purposes as a weed killer. Ample evidence was in the hands of the Food and Drug Administration that aminotriazole was a carcinogen and that it was a highly potent anti-thyroid drug.

In other words, it was a chemical known to have produced cancer in rats and to have caused abnormal growth of the thyroid gland, as well as thyroid tumors in rats. These facts were also established by producers of the chemical seeking to market it. The producers of the chemical had requested that its use be allowed so long as the tolerance was such as not to be dangerous. That is, a request was made that a tolerance of one part per million of aminotriazole on apples, pears, and cranberries should be established.

Rats Developed Tumors

However, this was not allowed, because the compound had been determined to be a carcinogen and the tumors which resulted from its use on rats had been diagnosed as various types of adenoma and carcinoma.

It was only after extended conferences between representatives of the National Cranberry Association and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare that the announcements concerning cranberries were made.

There was of course a great furor because of business interruptions, but in all fairness it should be pointed out that all of the facts concerning this entire problem were known to the National Cranberry Association and, according to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, this organization was fully advised of the decision that the factual situation should not be withheld from the public.

Some Certified 'Safe'

It might also be pointed out that the Food and Drug Administration has tested and cleared a total of 33.6 million pounds of cranberries found to be free of aminotriazole. It had instituted seizure action against 30 lots totaling 325,800 pounds as of January 26, 1960. Authorization has been given packers and distributors to show on the approved lots that the same have been certified "safe" by the United States Government.

Our next word, "stilbestrol," is short for the proper word "diethylstilbestrol" and is a synthetic hormone-like substance. Hormones are chemical substances created inside the animal's body and secreted into the blood stream. They help regulate such bodily processes as growth, rate of gain, and milk secretion.

On January 30, 1947, after two years of study, the Food and Drug Administration authorized the use of stilbestrol pellets in poultry. It was known at that time that stilbestrol had been shown to produce cancer in test animals by oral administration. In treating poultry, the pellet was implanted immediately behind the skull of the bird with the thought in mind that the removal of the head would remove all traces of the stilbestrol.

Remained in Liver

However, during investigations in 1950 and 1951 it was developed that minute amounts of stilbestrol remained in the liver of the treated birds. This residue was thought to be about 20 to 40 parts per billion, which was considered for all practical purposes the same as zero. Subsequently, stilbestrol was authorized for addition to the feed of beef cattle and later the Food and Drug Administration permitted the marketing of stilbestrol for implantation in the ears of beef cattle and sheep with directions that the ear not be used for food for man or animal.

A subsequent development of assaying stilbestrol in animal tissue revealed that there was no residue in beef, but confirmed the presence of 20 to 30 parts per billion in the liver of chickens and 35 to 100 parts per billion in the skin fat of chicken.

In 1958 Congress enacted a food additives amendment which in effect prohibited the Food and Drug Administration from approving new applications for the addition of stilbestrol to animal feed or drugs which leave residue in the edible part of treated animals.

The Food and Drug Administration, thereafter, working in coordination with poultry raisers, worked out a satisfactory policy whereby treated poultry, which was only about one percent of all the chickens on the market, could be removed. Therefore, it was possible to assure the public that poultry on the market could be purchased with confidence and that it was safe and wholesome.

Part of Testimony

These revelations were a part of the testimony of Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare Arthur S. Fleming, before our Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

The hearings are in relation to bills designed to protect the public health. Other testimony will be taken with relation to color additives in lipsticks, as well as other additives to other foods, cosmetics, and drugs.

The great ravages of cancer in recent years makes it most important that every safeguard be established to protect the health of Americans. The people should know all of the facts about the food that they consume and the cosmetics and drugs they use.

You're less likely to lose your shirt if you keep your sleeves rolled up.

Enrollment Open For Course on TV

Registration ends February 20 for the course offered in business English by Amarillo College on television.

Originating in the campus studios of Amarillo College, the program, known as "Sunrise Classroom," is micro-waved to KFDD-TV, which relays it to home viewers on channel 10.

The telecast is held from 6:30 to 7 a. m., Monday through Friday. The course begins Monday.

A practical course designed primarily for secretarial workers and business administration students, business English includes training in business and professional terminology, spelling, pronunciation, vocabulary building, grammar, and sentence structure.

Teacher of the course is Miss Beth Miesse, member of the business faculty of the college for more than 10 years. This is her third semester as teacher of Sunrise Classroom courses.

Persons who wish to enroll for the course may do so by going to the college or by requesting forms from the college registrar. Cost of the course, which carries three semester hours of college credit, is $15 for Texas residents, plus textbooks.

A LITTLE COMPARISON ---

We Texans think we're pretty bad off with our new automobile insurance law but in nearly every thing we do there is someone a little worse off than ourselves. Just for instance, say you were buying minimum limits Liability Insurance in Brooklyn, New York. You would be paying $147.00 per year up there while you pay only $26.00 per year here — that is with no points. This is not such a bad state after all, is it?

Little League Gets Show of Confidence

A resounding show of confidence was given the Little League organization in Canyon last Thursday night as some 75 persons overflowed the county commissioners' courtroom to herald the start of Little League activities here.

The future of Little League in Canyon hinged on the attendance at the meeting.

Dr. R. P. Jarrett, past president of the organization, called a meeting earlier this year, but not enough people showed up to conduct any business. The program would have been dropped this year if enough interested persons did not attend Thursday's meeting, Dr. Jarrett had warned.

The response to the meeting was so great that the site had to be shifted from the commissioners' courtroom to the district court room.

New Officers Elected

New officers, managers, chief umpires, an official scorekeeper, and a player agent were elected at last week's meeting.

New president of the organization is A. C. Haley, Jr., while Hugh Greiner was elected vice president. W. B. Davis was voted secretary and Clark Jarnagin was elected treasurer.

Managers are Jim Boyce, Dodgers; Velton Sargee, Redlegs; M. L. Sherrod, Yankees, and Don Briggs.

Chief Umpires Named

Dr. C. C. Callarman and Dr. Sam Urban were named chief umpires for the coming baseball season.

David Matthis will be the official scorekeeper and W. A. "Bill" Wilson again will be player agent. Haley said the fence will be repaired, dugouts put in first class condition, new bleachers erected, a new watering system installed, and the lighting checked out at the park before the season gets underway.

Want in Playoffs

No date was set for the opening of league play here. It was the consensus of the group present to wait until the district playoff dates are set before scheduling games for the league here.

Most indicated they would prefer the boys to play enough games to be eligible for the playoffs, which were held last year in August.

A motion to begin league play on June 1 was tabled.

Haley said most of the time and materials for improvements and reconditioning of the Little League park here have been donated by persons interested in Little League work.

Meanwhile, the charter for the organization here is to be mailed this week, along with requests for rule books and other literature pertaining to Little League, Haley added.

Tax-Man Sam Sez...

You probably have been reading where Internal Revenue is cracking down on expense account gouging. The tax officials in Dallas protest the use of the word "crackdown."

They say they are just taking a closer look at travel expense deductions. Most of us would like to have a hunting lodge, a seashore vacation, a yacht, and some of the other expense account items. Unfortunately, it looks like we can't put them on the expense account if and when we ever do arrive.

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

J. W. Spencer, chairman of the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District, was awarded the Outstanding Soil Conservationist Award by the Lions Club last Wednesday.

Spencer helped organize the Randall-Potter SCD and has been the chairman of the board since it was organized in 1955. He was the first cooperater with a complete soil and water conservation plan on his farm.

Other work accomplished by Spencer includes establishment of a wildlife area, construction of farm ponds and stocking with fish, terrace and diversion construction on cropland, chiseling and furrowing of range-land, proper use of rangeland, and preventing cropland from blowing.

Spencer also assisted with the publicity for formation of a soil conservation district in Potter County during 1959.

Since it has been too wet to do much field work, farmers and ranchers should start thinking about long range plans and practices for their cropland and rangeland. Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting the Randall-Potter Soil Conservation District will gladly assist you in working up a plan on your farm or ranch.

Grass seeding time is upon us and there are approximately 6,000 acres of land that will be seeded to grass this year. If you wish to use the district drills, you should contact Ed Dwyer as soon as possible as he keeps a list of farmers who wish to use the drills. For seeding rates and kind of seed to use contact the SCS, ASC, or county agent.

The only way a man can attain perfection is to follow the advice he gives to others.

The woman, Mrs. Ailene Evans, 56, of Plainview was killed three miles south of Amarillo when the car in which she was riding collided with a two and one-half ton Army truck.

The car was driven by her husband, Charles Herbert Evans. Evans remains in Northwest Texas Hospital, where he and his wife were taken by an Army ambulance. Mrs. Evans was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

The accident occurred at 7:20 a.m. as Evans was traveling north on U. S. Highway 87 into Amarillo.
